AHRMM Leadership Award

In Memory of George R. Gossett

The Leadership Award is presented by the Association for Healthcare Resource & Materials Management in memory of George R. Gossett, an early President of the Association. Gossett envisioned the prominence of resource and materials management in the healthcare field and championed the educational and professional development of the resource and materials management discipline. The Leadership Award is the highest honor bestowed by the Association.

The Association bestows the Leadership Award to an individual who has demonstrated an extraordinary level of leadership and professional competence in the field of resource and materials management, has made significant contributions to AHRMM, or has advanced the state-of-the-art in healthcare resource and materials management.

The Selection Process

Nominations are reviewed by the AHRMM Board of Directors. The following general criteria are considered in the selection process.

- Leadership role in enhancing the practice and role of resource and materials management in healthcare.
- Specific contribution and noted advances in the state-of-the-art.
- Professional contribution and support of AHRMM and the advancement of materials management.
- Work that has brought special attention and visibility to the profession.
- Personal and professional qualities.

Presentation

The award will be given to the recipient at the Annual Conference of the Association for Healthcare Resource & Materials Management. The recipient will be recognized in a special presentation and will receive a token of appreciation for his/her involvement and contribution to the healthcare industry. The Association bears the expenses of travel and lodging for the award recipient at the AHRMM's Annual Conference & Exhibition.
