What has been your biggest challenge with COVID-19? (Pick one)

- Information and communications management with business, clinical, and physician leadership: 10
- Other: 11
- Securing quality/authentic product: 12
- Finding and vetting non-traditional suppliers: 14
- Bidding wars and price gouging: 15
- Inability to source PPE supplies: 37

What do you think will be the biggest impact to the supply chain post COVID-19? (Select all that apply)

- More prioritization of products produced in the U.S.: 59
- More inventory and demand planning data sharing between providers and suppliers: 57
- Less reliance on JIT/more safety stock: 52
- More investment in inventory visibility across individual health systems: 49
- Closer coordination between clinical and supply chain teams: 41
- More investment in demand planning and sensing: 31
- Less product standardization: 14
- Less prioritization of price: 12
- Other: 6

Percent of registrants